REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest the claimed invention as a whole including a breather tank arranged independently between the engine intake system and the engine exhaust system on the rear side of the cylinder assembly and above the crankcase and a plurality of breather pipes connecting the breather tank to the engine and the engine intake system, in the context of a breather device of an engine of a vehicle in which an engine, which includes a crankcase and a cylinder assembly comprising a cylinder block arranged on an upper surface of the crankcase, a cylinder head and a cylinder cover, mounted to a vehicle body frame, an engine intake system arranged on a rear side of the cylinder assembly, an engine exhaust system arranged on one side of the engine, and a breather device arranged in the vehicle body so as to release a blow-by gas in the crankcase and to separate an oil content in the blow-by gas therefrom.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
